Dear

RE: Request to republish my monograph:

[Title of monograph]
[Author/editor]
[ISBN]
[Year of publication]

.....

ANU Press plans to publish this book in electronic form which will be available free of charge on the Internet. ANU Press may also make available Print-On-Demand copies, which may be purchased on a cost-recovery basis. The number of printed copies is unknown. The print version will be sold at the retail price of $.....

I seek your permission to revert the publishing/digital rights of this monograph to myself, as author. The monograph has been out of print since [insert date]. I have retained copyright for the book, [if so, would only need to ask for permission if the agreement gave an exclusive licence to publish the work and that licence is still current]. I now seek publishing/digital rights for this book. [NB: this paragraph may vary depending on circumstances e.g. Out of print, what rights the publisher may still have, or if ownership of copyright was not specifically dealt with in the publishing agreement].

Full acknowledgement of first publication [by name of publisher] of the monograph will be given. A release form appears below for your convenience, and a duplicate copy of this request and the release is attached for your files. Please reply to ... [If name different from writer] by*[date]*.....

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Yours sincerely
